New Directions in the Study of Tibetan Buddhist Art History

A symposium on New Directions in the Study of Tibetan Buddhist Art History, sponsored by the Harvard-Yenching Institute and co-sponsored by the Committee of Inner Asian and Altaic Studies will take place at Harvard University on April 28-29, 2018.

The Cultural Heritage of Tibetan Buddhist Art is found in the enormous area where Tibetan cultures, religions, and languages hold sway, stretching from Gilgit-Baltistan to Yunnan and Sichuan Provinces, PRC, and from the northern reaches of India, Nepal and Bhutan to large swathes of Qinghai and Gansu Provinces, PRC. Over the past decade, intensive field work, remarkable new discoveries of Tibetan texts and works of Tibetan art have been coupled with new approaches to research and the applications of new technologies in the study of Tibetan Buddhist art. As a result, the study of Tibetan Buddhist art history has attracted increasing attention from a larger number of disciplines. Thus, we hold this symposium to promote scholarly communication and interaction.

We are very glad to announce the program of the symposium, please feel free to join us.
